

We want to make your Year 13 students aware that many high-value scholarships will close in late July and August. It's now time to act - our Scholarship guide was updated this morning with the latest offerings, dates and guidance. We've listed hundreds of opportunities available to any Year 13 student planning to attend university in New Zealand in 2020.

How you can help your year 13 students:

We would welcome you letting your students and parents know about the resource, either by:

1. Linking our scholarship page to your school's website
2. Posting our scholarship page on Facebook and/or
3. Sending out a summary of the scholarship page in your school newsletter.

To make things easy, we've included a sample blurb below that you are welcome to use for Facebook and/or newsletters.

1. For Facebook:

University Scholarships for Year 13 Students

MoneyHub has published a guide to hundreds of scholarships for students starting university in 2020. All universities are covered, and there are hundreds of privately-funded, Maori, Pacific and International university scholarships too. Applications close throughout the year, with tens of millions of dollars available. MoneyHub has also published a list of tips for scholarship success. To find suitable scholarships, visit the MoneyHub Scholarship page

2. For school newsletters:

University Scholarships for Year 13 Students

MoneyHub, a consumer finance website, has published a guide to hundreds of scholarships for any student planning to start university in 2020. The comprehensive list includes scholarships offered by every university as well as those specifically available to local students. A list of privately-funded, Maori, Pacific and International university scholarships completes the list. Applications close throughout the year, with tens of millions of dollars available. MoneyHub has also published a list of tips for scholarship success.

For more details and to find suitable scholarships, visit the MoneyHub Scholarship page

The scholarship page is free to use and always will be. Unlike GivMe, students can access the information at home and on their mobiles etc. We have published a number of tips for application success as well, designed to make the application process less stressful for your students.

If you have any questions, please let me know. We welcome any feedback on the page.

Kind regards,
